Courtney Elizabeth Anderson, JD, MBA, "the workplace relationship expert" is an internationally renowned media personality and television legal analyst. She is a motivational and keynote speaker in all areas of leadership, personal empowerment and employment law workplace compliance.

A globally recognized expert, the media turns to Dr. Anderson for answers. She appears in print, on radio and on television as a voice of authority, humor and unique introspection. Her numerous media appearances include frequent expert guest analysis on FOX News, MSNBC, CNN, CNN International and USA Today.

In a word, "unconventional." Ms. Anderson utilizes her academic, entrepreneurial, and vast life experiences combined with humor, dramatic styling, and her gift as an entertainer to deliver the most informative, inspiring, and riveting keynote performances in the industry. Ms. Anderson, recognized as one of "America's Top Women Motivators", has co-authored the incredible business book (with #1 New York Times best-selling author, Dr. Cherie Carter-Scott [et al.]) Ordinary Women, Extraordinary Success (Career Press).

Currently, Dr. Anderson focuses primarily on her training and consulting firm, Courtney Anderson & Associates, LLC "the Litigation Mitigation Experts." Her firm is the preeminent global boutique provider of human resource capital management. Dr. Anderson provides global client solutions to the most challenging workplace relationship issues imaginable. With more than 500 successful speaking engagements delivered, her unique approach of integrating leadership skills with her knowledge of the law has motivated, inspired, enlightened and transformed the way organizations manage to minimize their legal liability in North America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia.

As an attorney, Courtney Anderson, Esq., is in private practice as a solo practitioner with her firm, the Law Office of Courtney E. Anderson, based in Austin, Texas. Attorney Anderson primarily practices entertainment law, with selected business law and criminal defense casework.

As an educator, Dr. Anderson has served in primary, secondary and university institutions. She previously served on the faculty at the University of Texas at Austin McCombs School of Business where she taught Business Law. In addition, she currently is an adjunct professor with both Axia College / University of Phoenix and Ashington University teaching undergraduate and graduate business and law courses.

An entertainer (singer, songwriter, producer, choreographer, director and radio talk show host), Courtney Anderson has garnered acclaim with her introspective and unique art. Her award-winning music video work and sizzling live performances are highlights of her distinctive music career. A lifelong entrepreneur, Courtney has built her successful firms through a convergence of her boundless passions and pragmatic decision. She owns entertainment and real estate firms in addition to owning her own law and consulting practices.
