Business, like combat, can be a danger zone. Success depends on how well all members of a team execute their individual missions every single day. Many corporations excel at planning - but when it comes to execution, they fail. That's where Afterburner Seminars comes in. For more than a decade, Afterburner Seminars have led the world's top corporations to breakthrough performance through the use of the Flawless Execution Model utilized by fighter pilots of the highest discipline.

This squadron of speakers soared onto the scene in a big way, with offices in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Australia and India. Their client roster runs the gamut from IBM and Marriott to General Motors. By relating the corporate culture to the sometimes unfriendly skies, the Afterburner Seminars apply real-world situations to impart their message. Regardless of market, business model or industry, Afterburner Seminars have transformed businesses into highly competitive fighting forces to be reckoned with.

The Afterburner Seminars, founded by ace fighter pilot Jim Murphy, provide a one-of-a-kind, interactive, high-energy experience that is custom-tailored to inspire leadership, integrated teamwork and the quick, flexible thinking essential to fighter pilots and business managers alike.
