Brian O'Malley draws analogies between his climbing adventures and the challenges we face both personally and professionally. He sends the message to excel and live life to its fullest. He will challenge your audience to take their own risks and turn dreams into reality. "We all have a Mt. Everest somewhere in our life."

Brian has taken his experiences and adventures and woven them into an educational and entertaining multi-media presentation that is truly one of a kind. With a mix of sound, stories and breath-taking photography, you feel as though you are there. Brian is a warm and engaging speaker and even in a large audience, you feel as if he is speaking directly to you.

Before becoming an accomplished speaker, Brian was a full-time professional paramedic/firefighter. He has been featured on the CBS network television program, "Rescue 911." In addition, he has worked as a police officer, SWAT team member and rescue specialist. He is also an award-winning photographer and the author of a children's adventure book. In addition to the Himalayas, his adventures have taken him all over the world to Asia, South America, North America and Africa.

Brian is unique, inspiring and speaks to your heart with a passion for his message.
