Christopher Carter

Travels from: Illinois

Fee Range: $2,500 - $5,000

Christopher Carter first became interested in E.S.P. at the age of eight, when an uncle allowed him to sit in on a poker game. Observing the body language of the players, Chris discovered that people broadcast their thoughts, and their cards, in ways beyond words. His interest in hypnotism was sparked a few years later during a high-school psychology class: a visiting lecturer gave Chris the suggestion that his body would become completely rigid. Nobody was more amazed than Chris when he was soon suspended like a board between two chairs.

Although he pursued dual interests in psychology and theater in college, it wasn't until he was doing graduate work that Chris finally put it all together: he blended his fast-paced, humorous theatrical style with stunning displays of psychological ability, and the ovations and accolade have been coming ever since.

Christopher Carter has earned feature appearances on the Martin Short Show and the Donny & Marie Show, and engagements for such diverse corporations as Harley-Davidson, Conde Nast Publications, Bristol Myers Squibb and Sprint PCS. In 2005, Campus Activities Magazine and its readership of college programmers honored Chris with the title of "Performing Arts Entertainer of the Year."
