Connie Merritt, RN, BSN, PHN

Travels from: California

Fee Range: $5,001 - $7,500

A registered nurse with a passion for research, writing and speaking to healthcare professionals, Connie understands the world of healthcare, the people, processes and dynamic influences at our doorstep, today. Connie has an outstanding reputation within the industry and she is retained by healthcare organizations nationwide every year to speak to thousands upon thousands. She is an established healthcare information agent to leaders - and their teams - as she understands what they are facing as they press forward in this dynamic industry where it is estimated that the sheer volume of knowledge doubles every six years.

Fully vetted by the healthcare industry, she is recognized as a dynamic speaker having "the credentials," as well as "an insider perspective" - with the all-important "one of us" voices. Her programs draw upon her vast experiences as a registered nurse, trend researcher, author and business professional. She delivers timely programs for organizations and individuals to learn the best practice skills and strategies to thrive now and continue to excel in managing tasks and relationships.

In her latest book released from McGraw-Hill, Too Busy For Your Own Good, Connie has helped millions of people and organizations make vital adjustments to manage change and maintain focus in a world demanding multiple decisions and responses to lists of requests - especially during these opportunistic and changing times. Along with her professional speaking expertise she offers practical experience in combining medical technology, research, team dynamics and the human touch. Connie Merritt, RN, BSN, PHN, understands firsthand how the healthcare industry is advancing in technology - as professionals diagnose, treat and administer care around the clock, responding to the needs of millions of people - from neonatal care to eldercare.

Connie Merritt is an established information agent to leaders - and their teams - as she understands what they are facing as they press forward in today's marketplace. Her work and expertise been regularly featured in USA TODAY, FOX Business, FOX News, CNN, Entrepreneur, as well as national news outlets including ABC, NBC and CBS.
