Dan Hampton, a force on one of the most fearsome defenses in NFL history, was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on February 2, 2002 and inducted on August 3 during ceremonies in Canton, Ohio. Dan is an engaging sports personality who is well known for his anecdotal and motivational speaking style. This, paired with his down-to-earth personality, makes him a captivating speaker for association and corporate audiences.

Hampton was named to the NFL "Team of the 80's" by the Pro Football Hall of Fame Board of Selectors, as well as earning four trips to the Pro Bowl during his career. He was a standout for the unforgettable 1986 Super Bowl Champion Chicago Bears team, and is only the second player to play for the Bears in three consecutive decades.

Nicknamed "Danimal" for his intense playing style, this versatile gentleman also plays six different musical instruments. Although Dan has retired from the gridiron, he keeps busy as a spokesperson for companies such as Chevrolet and Firestone as well as hosting pre- and post-game shows for the Bears on WGN Radio. His football background comes in handy at Pro Football Weekly where he is a staff member and host of their weekly cable show.
