Dan Thurmon

Travels from: Georgia

Fee Range: $7,501 - $10,000

Dan Thurmon began his entrepreneurial career when he was eleven years old after learning to juggle at a Renaissance Festival. That one event uncovered a passion for engaging and inspiring audiences that has only grown over time. As an entertainer, Dan has appeared at thousands of events across the country and overseas. He has shared the stage with acts such as The Commodores, Dave Koz, The Neville Brothers, Bella Fleck, Frankie Avalon and Kool and the Gang. He has also appeared many times on national television, including "The Late Show with David Letterman."

As he built his entertainment business, Dan was able to self-finance his education, travel the world, and learn what it takes to consistently deliver superior performances on and off the stage.

Dan is president of Motivation Works, Inc., an international speaking and entertainment firm. He teaches audiences how to manage the demands of their busy lives with increased focus and decisive action. His unique speaking style, Speaking with Visual Impact™, utilizes all of his skills, blending meaningful content with emotionally charged performances.

Dan is a graduate of the University of Georgia with a degree in Marketing. He has also studied business management, music, theater, acting, dance, gymnastics, and aviation. In 2003 Dan achieved the highest earned award of the National Speakers Association, receiving the elite designation of "Certified Speaking Professional." He has delivered over a thousand presentations across America, Europe, and Asia for organizations including IBM, General Motors, Deloitte and Touche, The Coca Cola Company, and AT&T. Dan currently lives in the Atlanta area with his wife, Sheilia, and their children, Eddie and Maggie.
