Jerry Bridge

Travels from: California

Fee Range: $5,001 - $7,500

Jerry Bridge is a nationally recognized motivational speaker, humorist and author. He is well known for turning complex, topics into fun, engaging thought provoking programs and for his ability to help people reduce stress, improve productivity and build teamwork.

Over the past 25 years Jerry has presented inspiring keynotes, content rich workshops and webinars for tens of thousands of healthcare executives, managers and administrative staff.

Jerry integrates over 25 years of specialized training and development with Landmark Education Corporation; a leader and innovator in the field of transformational education. Jerry is a master coach; from communication to productivity and well-being.

Jerry's new book, Who Cares? Matters of Heart, Humor & Reconciliation, has been widely recognized by healthcare professionals as an inspiring, uplifting memoir for anyone with a family caregiving challenge or story.

A baby boomer from Baltimore, Jerry's never lost his fondness for his hometown teams, blue crabs and Maryland hospitality. Jerry has travelled the world running marathons, raising money and resources for ending hunger. He is a drummer, knows his way around a kitchen, and has performed standup at the world famous Comedy Store.

Above all else, Jerry's passion is to lead inspiring, motivating programs that empower people while having lots of fun in the process.
