What is the secret to Joe Malarkey's success?

Simple...It's George Campbell

Joe Malarkey is a character that exploded onto corporate and association stages. His contrarian philosophy and over-the-top ideas ignite laughter and applause at every event. TV shows as diverse as "60 Minutes" and "To Tell The Truth" featured him as a unique and outrageous voice.

Joe has been described as a man who is extremely excited about some very bad ideas. If that's the case, then George Campbell is a man who believes that you can use laughter to break down barriers and connect with an audience.

Simply stated, after an audience has laughed through Joe, they are ready for George.

George Campbell has had a long career as a writer, Hall of Fame speaker and business owner. With the same humor and inventiveness that created "Joe," George shares real stories and real ideas for overcoming fear and obstacles. It is here that he can weave your theme, your focus and your message into a memorable experience that your group will retain long after the program ends.
