Liz Jazwiec

Travels from: Illinois

Fee Range: $7,501 - $10,000

Liz Jazwiec (Jazz-wick) is a nationally recognized speaker, specializing in improving customer and employee satisfaction.

As founder and CEO of Liz, Inc., a consulting practice formed to help organizations develop a customer service culture driven by increased employee satisfaction, Liz directly addresses the concerns facing businesses today including leadership, team and customer satisfaction issues. With over 25 years of clinical and corporate experience, Liz has been instrumental in accomplishing service and organizational excellence based on developing improved employee morale.

Her business background includes:

- Sales and management corporate recruiter
- Director of Organizational Development
- Advisor to CEO on leadership development
- Leadership Institute chair

In addition, Liz's healthcare highlights encompass:

- Vice President of Patient Care
- Director of Emergency Services
- 25 years as a Registered Nurse

In her new book, Eat THAT Cookie! How Workplace Positivity Pays Off...For Individuals, Teams and Organizations, Liz gets real about all that and more. In her darkly humorous, ever-so-slightly sarcastic style - after all she was an ER nurse - she builds a case for the powerful benefits of a positive workplace.

Liz has a vision that makes a clear connection between customer satisfaction and corporate culture! Her mission is to make people realize they can make work better by working together, having fun, and believing in their organization again... delivering a credible message with a refreshing style, deep insight, and candid humor!

Liz will inspire, entertain and change attitudes, show how to improve leadership, morale and customer service, but most importantly, how to begin! She uses levity in her presentations to give your organization "a shot in the arm" to move beyond self-imposed limits and toward the commitment and action necessary to transform your service culture. Liz provides the enthusiasm needed to start on the road to workplace recovery!

Your audience will leave excited with optimism and determination because they have learned that they already have what it takes to respond to their personal challenges.
