We help you thrill your audience!

Murray Banks

Travels from: Vermont

Fee Range: $7,501 - $10,000

As an honored educator and world champion athlete, Murray Banks knows how to craft and deliver an engaging and motivational message. His unique and interactive style merges skills, inspiration and fun to create dynamic and thought provoking presentations.

You never get just a speech with Murray. Every keynote is custom tailored to capture your audience. His research on your organization and collaboration with your planning team provide the insight to customize specifically to your conference theme. Murray's signature topics are fresh and in the moment-more of a lively conversation than a speech. Murray Banks was Teacher Of The Year in Vermont and has been to the world championships in two sports.

Married for 40 years, Janie and he have raised two sons who are elite mountain guides. Their expeditions together often find their way into his presentations illustrating the power of focus, adaptability and balance! Murray delivers every keynote with the warmth, fun and intensity that brought him success professionally and athletically.
