Nancy Hightshoe

Travels from: Missouri

Fee Range: $2,500 - $5,000

An expert in professional and personal effectiveness, safety, security, and survival, Nancy Hightshoe's background as a pioneer in the field of criminal justice adds an extraordinary perspective to her presentations. She inspires audiences worldwide with a foundation of personal courage and responsibility at the heart of her informative programs.

Nancy is a pioneer in both the areas of women in law enforcement and teaching personal safety to all ages. She was one of the first women in the nation to patrol in a one-officer squad car on all three shifts and, as a Crimes Against Persons Detective, Nancy cleared more than 85% of her felony assault investigations (the national average is 49%).

Nancy's police experiences have given her a unique perspective on achieving success. In addition to her success in law enforcement, Nancy brings to her programs years of personal involvement and practical knowledge as a business consultant, corporate trainer and entrepreneur.

She appears on-camera as an expert and commentator for the NBC St. Louis affiliate and has been a media spokesperson for AT&T. She holds a Master's Degree in Human Relations and in The Administration of Justice and a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology. Nancy has been named to the World Who's Who of Women. She has also received the Giraffe Project Commendation which reads in part, "whose courageous actions illumine all our lives making manifest the Truth that people who believe in themselves and care for others can meet any challenge life presents."

Nancy is a member of Zonta International. She has addressed audiences throughout the United States, as well as in seventeen foreign countries, including Italy, Australia, India, Chile, South Africa and Japan. Nancy's client lists includes NASA, AFLAC Insurance, American Soybean Association, New Mexico State University and the Daughters of Charity Health Care System.

Part of Nancy Hightshoe's strength is her ability to tailor programs to meet the needs of each of our clients. While the list that follows indicates her most requested presentations, it is by no means the limit of the programs she can create. We welcome the opportunity to explore the possibilities with you!
