Richard Hadden is a Certified Speaking Professional who helps organizations improve business results by creating a great place to work. An internationally recognized thought leader in the field of Employee Engagement, he is co-author of Contented Cows Give Better Milk, Contented Cows Moove Faster, Rebooting Leadership and Contented Cows STILL Give Better Milk, Revised and Expanded, published by John Wiley & Sons.

He has appeared on CNN, MSNBC and Fox, and his work has been featured on National Public Radio and in the pages of Business Week, The Wall Street Journal, Workforce Management and many trade and professional association journals. Richard has also earned a Master of Business Administration from The University of North Florida, Jacksonville and a Bachelor of Science in Management from Jacksonville University.

Richard Hadden was a manager for a large savings and loan association in the 1980's. He learned computer programming and worked as a programmer and systems analyst in the field of multi-user microcomputer software, before the advent of PC's. He was Director of Product Development for a software house in North Florida before starting his own software consulting business in 1986.

While consulting, he taught software design, principles of management and international economics at Jacksonville University from 1988-1991. Since 1990 he has delivered keynote presentations and training programs for more than 800 audiences on five continents. In 2000, he received the Certified Speaking Professional designation from the National Speakers Association. This is the highest earned designation in the speaking profession.
