For your next conference or convention, bring in a proven, dynamic keynote speaker who will inspire your people to action and lasting changes! Terry's motivating message is exactly what people need to get past the uncertainty and indecision of these challenging times to make change work. He moves people into action that gets positive results. You get a fired up audience, and you'll look like a hero. More importantly, you'll see people implement what they have learned long after the conference is over.

Terry Paulson is a PhD psychologist, a recognized expert on change management and author of the popular books, They Shoot Managers Don't They?, Paulson on Change, Making Humor Work, 50 Tips for Speaking Like a Pro, and Can I Have the Keys to the Car? For more than 30 years, Dr. Paulson has been helping audiences transform their self-limiting beliefs into self-fulfilling breakthroughs to achieve their personal and professional goals. Terry will motivate your audience through his unique and memorable personal stories and engaging humor, teaching them leadership and life lessons that they can use for years to come. He will help your people transform challenges into choices, obstacles into opportunities, and setbacks into stepping stones to success.

Terry is considered by many to be the preeminent expert on the human side of change management. His programs have touched thousands, around the globe through his live keynote programs. Terry's presentations are more than motivational. His dynamic and compelling programs provide both the attitude adjustment and the practical strategies for organizations, leaders and teams to make strategic change work!

Terry makes sure his programs fit your organization and your situation. His unique, inspirational stories could be told by no one else. Your people receive a program, that's fast-paced, fun, and relentlessly packed with usable information they put to work right away. Tailored to help people break through to higher confidence, sustained action, and strategic results, his dynamic, customized, and compelling programs are dead on. He brings practical real-world insights, knowledge, and passion to everything he does.

In 2004, Dr. Paulson received The National Speakers Association's Cavett Award. It is the association's most cherished award presented annually to the member whose accomplishments over the years have reflected outstanding credit, respect, honor and admiration in the association and the speaking profession. Dr. Paulson is also a past president of both the National Speakers Association and the International Federation for Professional Speakers.
