Tim Gabrielson

Travels from: Minnesota

Fee Range: $5,001 - $7,500

Tim Gabrielson's blend of comedy and magic has left audiences amazed since 1989.

Tim's brand of keynote entertainment uses that magical blend while influencing attendees to modify thought patterns resulting in greater enthusiasm and improved productivity. By sharing his philosophy; that responding-rather than reacting-will change the outcome, he is able to guide audiences to focus on their own abilities to overcome obstacles simply and easily with one paradigm shift. As detailed in his book Lemons to Laughter, Tim ignites positivity resulting in greater success in every aspect of life.

In recent years, physicians have confirmed what we already knew...that laughter is good medicine! Science has rivaled common sense in providing findings that laughter is not only good for the soul but also proven to be good for our health. Whether it's the release of endorphins or the decrease in stress hormones that provide an overall sense of well-being and improved outlook, the cause isn't as important as the result: A happier, healthier approach to everyday life!

Tim will inspire you with his words, entertain you with his breathtaking comedy and magic and show attendees how to make small choices that result in big differences. Whether your audience is comprised of owners, managers, or the front line staff, your group will walk away invigorated and equipped to infuse the Lemons to Laughter culture into their business and their lives.
